

JetBlue's Sky-High Transatlantic Experience and Down-to-Earth Fares Arrive in Boston with Flights to Both London Gatwick and London Heathrow

Boston's #1 Airline Advances its Northeast and Transatlantic Growth Strategies, Becoming the Only Carrier to Fly Daily Between New England and Two London Airports

Boston Service Builds on Successful Transatlantic Service Between New York and London, With JFK-Heathrow Service Extended Through 2023

JetBlue disrupts the competitive transatlantic market with the introduction of its highly anticipated flights between the airline's Boston focus city and London starting this summer. New nonstop service between Boston Logan International Airport (BOS) and London Gatwick Airport (LGW) takes off from the U.S. on August 4, 2022, followed by nonstop service between Boston and London Heathrow Airport (LHR) on September 20, 2022.
